With F.M.L.

Next week, Sept. 6-9 to be exact, Cameron's German Folk Fete dancers will join 140 other Central Texans at the second Texas Folklife Festival in San Antonio.

This group of 18 dancers may well have become one of the best known in this part of Texas in the four years they have been working together.

Charles Kunz, past president of Cameron's Folk Fete, Inc., still heads the dance group which went to the first Folklife Festival last year.

What is different about the German dancers is that they have gone back to original German music and dance steps to build up their repertoire.

And considering it is a volunteer group, it takes more than a little doing to keep a dozen and a half people sharp enough to compete with the relatively large number of ethnic dance groups in Texas.

It seems German dance groups are not as abundant as, say, Czech dance groups. At one time a couple of years ago, Kunz said it was possible the Cameron group was the only active German dance group in Texas.

That is why he had to go back to

Cameron Lawyers Asked To Defend Douglas Stewart

Two Cameron attorneys have been appointed to represent Douglas M. Stewart after a Falls County grand jury returned two indictments against him for the murders of two sheriff's deputies.

John B. Henderson and Robert L. Ellett were appointed Friday by 82nd District Court Judge John C. Patterson following Stewart's indictment for the August slayings of Elbert Watkins and Dean Humphus.

The deputies were shot to death as they attempted to pick Stewart up at a house a mile south of Marlin to take him to the Psychiatric Diagnostic Center in Waco.

The indictments charged Stewart with "murder with malice of a peace officer."

It is the first case in Central Texas which falls under the new capital punishment penalty for killing a peace officer while he is performing a duty.

Stewart was returned to Marlin Friday morning from McLennan County jail in Waco and taken before Judge Patterson. The judge asked him if he was financially able to hire an attorney and Stewart said he wasn't. Judge Patterson then asked Stewart if he wanted the court to appoint an attorney for him.

the continent for the music, which he carries taped. The men's Liedersosen are real enough and the rest of costumes.

Dancers from Brazos and Grimes Counties also will represent Central Texas, among the 2,000 participants in the four-day event.

Planners anticipate another 100,000 to visit the "danceoff, singoff, playoff." It will be staged at HemisFair Plaza's Institute of Texan Cultures.

Around the Milam area, we realize Folk Fete is now an established festival, but we may have to see these German dancers at work in San Antonio to realize how long and how far ethnic fun has gone.

Alcoa Offspring Apply For Two Scholarships

Sons and daughters of Alcoas throughout Central Texas have begun applying for the two $4,000 four-year Alcoa Foundation college scholarships awarded annually at Aluminum Company of America's Rockdale Works.

Fred P. Bergeron, plant manager, said 28 scholarships have been given to dependents of local employees since the corporate-wide program began in 1953. Winners last spring were Mark Menke of Rockdale High School and Joyce Koudelka of Lexington High School.

Bergeron said applications for this year's scholarships are available at the plant through departmental supervisors. Candidates must fill out applications and give them to their high school principals no later than Friday, September 7.

Applicants must be in the upper half of their senior class or have at least a C-plus average, Bergeron said. The award program includes step-children of Alcoas if they reside in the employee's household, whether or not they have been legally adopted, he explained.

Also, candidates' parents must have three years continuous service with the company. Sons and daughters of retired or deceased Alcoas are eligible, if they completed three years service immediately prior to retirement or death.

The local Alcoa Foundation scholarship selection board, chaired by Jim Moorman, superintendent of the Rockdale Independent School District, will screen applications to determine eligibility.

Joining Moorman on the local selection board are area school super-

Milam REACT To Sponsor Rest Stop For Labor Day

Milam County REACT will again sponsor a rest stop for motorists traveling during the Labor Day weekend, opening at 6 p.m. Friday and staying open 24 hours a day until 8 p.m. Monday.

Last year some 2300 travelers stopped for a coffee and Coke break at the rest stop south of Cameron across Little River bridge. The club sponsors the rest stop for most major holidays throughout the year.

Beverages and cookies are donated in part by Milam County businesses and the club's rest stop fund also provides supplies.

The club also offers help to stranded motorists via citizens band radio which is part of the club's equipment.

The local Alcoa Foundation scholarship sponsoring committee is composed of Oxsheer Smith of Cameron, C. A. Wuensche of Thorndale and George Bredt and Duncan McGregor of Rockdale.

Cummings Joins Herald Staff

Glynn Cummings has joined The Herald staff and will be writing sports, covering Cameron and county and area events.

Cummings, 18, is a freshman student at Temple Junior College. He was active in sports at Yoe High School before graduation, playing football. He was a member of the FFA organization and president of the Distributive Education class while at Yoe High.

News about sports events may be sent to him in care of The Cameron Herald.

Labor Day Traffic Toll May Reach 42

AUSTIN
Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, today warned that 42 persons may lose their lives in Texas traffic during the long Labor Day weekend.

The holiday officially begins at 6 p.m. Friday, August 31 and runs through midnight Monday, September 3.

Speir said the DPS is making preparations to cope with increased holiday travel. "Every available Department of Public Safety patrolman will be on duty during this three day weekend, utilizing all resources we can put our hands on to prevent accidents," he added.

The DPS director noted that special attention will be paid to hazardous traffic violations normally associated with a high holiday death toll. Patrolmen will be especially watchful for such offenses as speeding, driving while drinking, improper passing and driving on the wrong side of the road.

In addition to stepped-up enforcement activities, the DPS will also work with local law enforcement agencies and the news media of Texas to conduct an accident prevention program called "Operation Motorcide."

During "Operation Motorcide," tabulations and pertinent facts about all fatal holiday traffic crashes will be compiled three times daily and released to the news media. Notation will be made as to where and why accidents are happening.

Speir called the holiday program "a life and death struggle for the lives of our citizens," and he urged every motorist to cooperate in the effort.

New State Laws Affect Teens, Allow Right Turn On Red Light

New laws affecting young Texans, motorists, car owners, farmers and sportsmen, among others, went into effect Monday, with the granting of adulthood for 18-year-olds about the most publicized of the lot.

Monday was the effective date for legislation passed by the 1973 legislature that grants adulthood to 18, 19 and 20 year-olds youths in the state.

Everyone 18 or over can now sign contracts -- and be held responsible for living up to their obligations, serve on juries, consent to medical treatment, and legally buy alcoholic beverages.

Several other major bills took effect Monday, making it one of those milestones that some people will recall to their grandchildren.

And a handful of bills were given September 1 effective date by the legislature.

Monday also marked a major shift in another area that is important to both young people and their parents. After midnight, Texans who are arrested with less than four ounces of marijuana no longer will be threatened with prison terms.

STILL A CRIME

It still will be a crime to possess marijuana, but juries will not be able to send someone to prison for life for having a marijuana cigarette as they could before.

Possession of up to two ounces will carry a top penalty of six months in jail and a $1,000 fine. The maximum penalty for having two to four ounces will be a year in jail and a $2,000 fine.

Another law which took effect Monday gives state employees a day off. It made August 27, the birthday of the late President Lyndon Johnson a state holiday. The measure drops Jefferson Davis' birthday, June 3, from the list of holidays but honors the Confederate president along with Robert E. Lee on January 19, Lee's birthday, which will be called Confederate Heroes Day.

RIGHT ON RED

One of the most noticeable changes was in automobile traffic. Motorists will be able to turn right after stopping for a red light unless an intersection is marked with a sign prohibiting such turns.

Until now, right turns on red lights have been allowed only at specified intersections.

Drug store customers will have a greater opportunity to price shop before filling prescriptions because of a law which took effect Monday.

The new law requires all pharmacies to post their maximum prices for standard quantities of the 100 most commonly prescribed drugs.

The posters, now being prepared by the State Board of Pharmacy will be distributed between September 1 and September 15.

Another highly publicized new law might or might not make itself felt in the market place after Monday. It allows the sale of bread in packages of eight ounces, instead of the currently required minimum 16-ounce size.

Sportsmen and car insurance buyers should quickly notice the new laws which become effective September 1.

LICENSES GO UP

Hunting and fishing licenses for the year starting Sept. 1 already are on sale with the higher fees approved by the legislature: $4.25 for fishing licenses and $5.25 for hunting licenses. The new prices compare with former $2.15 for a fishing license and $3.25 for a hunting license.

September 1 marks the date insurance companies can start selling automobile policies for less than the standard rates set by the State Insurance Board. They can also charge more, but only with the consent of all policy holders affected.

Farmers and ranchers in most counties will be able to get permits from the State Parks and Wildlife Department to hunt coyotes from helicopters under the new predator control bill.

Church buses like school buses will have red lights forcing motorists to stop when they stop.

ASAP Brochure Gives County Too Many DWIs

Contrary to statistics released in a new brochure on "ASAP in Milam County" issued by the Central Texas Alcohol Safety Action Project, County Judge O. B. Harden says Milam County is reporting a reduction in arrests for driving while intoxicated.

The brochure, sent to Judge Harden, states that 250 people in Milam County were arrested in 1972 by ASAP's alcohol detection and control teams, which the brochure claims have been operating since July, 1972.

Judge Harden said the only survey in the county by ASAP was made August 18, 1973, and they are not operating in the county at this time. Harden said they were working with the cities of Cameron and Rockdale only.

ASAP is a new activity of the Central Texas Council of Governments.

Harden checked statistics in county records which showed that in 1972, 134 arrests were made for driving while intoxicated in Milam County, 95 of those through August, 1972. Records for 1973 through August show that only 53 persons were arrested for DWI by state, county and city law enforcement officers.

Judge Harden credited law enforcement by DPS patrolmen, sheriff's department, and city police with reducing the number of DWI arrests this year in the county.

The brochure, stating statistics for 1972, said: "State law enforcement officers alone arrested over 125 people in Milam County for driving while intoxicated."

"and 250 by ASAP's alcohol detection and control teams, which began operating in July, 1972."

In a summary of results of the drivers survey conducted in Cameron and Rockdale August 18, ASAP reported that of 75 drivers interviewed and given a breath test, none had a test reading of .10, which is the reading at which drivers are presumed to be intoxicated in Texas.

BUMPER HARVEST of grain in the county piles up at grainary. The unusually big crop, harvested faster with bigger machines, is overflowing grainaries all over Central Texas, and shippers can't keep up with the flow.

1st Bale Ginned At Buckholts

The first bale of Milam County cotton was ginned last week, August 23, by Modern Gin of Buckholts. Alvin Glaser of Route 2, Rosebud brought the cotton in, a spokesman for the gin said this week.

The bale weighed 570 pounds and seed weight was 2300 pounds.

Getting Cattle To Market...

Housewives are seeing a little lesson in economics as the local cattle auction showed a drop in the price of some types of live animals.

Feeder cattle prices dropped in a market still priced higher than a year ago. Other cattle prices were steady. Poultry and egg prices are off because of voluntary buying boycotts around the country. Pork is still up.

The only segment of agriculture which is free of pricing restraints, except for indirect influence in grains, the cattle industry, was the first to show a response to supply and demand in selling here.

The cattle industry announced this week that Texas cattle head count has been the same or higher than before prices shot up, proving that cattlemen are not holding stock off the market during the temporary price freeze.

This kind of self restraint has kept the cattle industry free of controls. And the housewives around the metropolitan areas of the nation, where the households are most numerous, might question the advisability of props on agriculture commodities and of price controls, good time or bad.

It is easily the biggest industry afoot in Texas and its sense of responsibility during a controversial marketing period will keep people eating real beef longer, even when soy-bean protein sells rampant throughout a protein-starved world.

Mortgage Rates Climb...

Mortgage rates have been raised on federally insured home mortgages to a record 8.5 percent.

It is an effort to keep low and middle - income home buyers in competition for scarce mortgage money.

This action is helpful in Cameron's continuing effort to build housing so long needed here.

The new rate covers houses up to $33,000. Most housing in Cameron would run somewhere between $17,000 and $25,000. And considering inflation, that's not too fancy inside.

But it's a lot nicer than what for years passed for rental or marketable housing in the area.

We hope things keep abuilding here.

"Low Down" FROM THE Congressional Record

By JOE CRUMP

(A Column for Readers Who Haven't Time to Review the Congressional Record Daily)

BIG BROTHER SAYS BUCKLE UP OR BUZZ?

Rep. James M. Collins (Texas) "... Do you have a feeling that the folks back home are getting more free advice than they want on how to mind their own business? The latest move by the bureaucrats is to control the passenger's safety while he is in the car.

"I have just introduced a bill to amend the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act. This will restrain the Secretary of Transportation from requiring motor vehicles to be equipped with upper torso restraint, and with flasher or buzzer devices or a starter interlock system associated with belts or torso restraints.

"Frankly, I am fed right up to my ears with all of these departmental bureaucrats regimenting my life.

"We have had a strong public approval of seat belts. But there is a lack of enthusiasm for the shoulder harness.

"But next year the new model cars are worked out on the principle of Playov and his dog. They are going to buzz when you sit down or turn on your ignition unless you are completely tied into your strait-jacket.

"Shoulder harnesses and the starter interlock system should be optional equipment. For instance, this new starter interlock system will increase the price of a new car by $37. This makes a total increase of $106 per car when you add in the basic belt system warnings, buzzers, and interlocks.

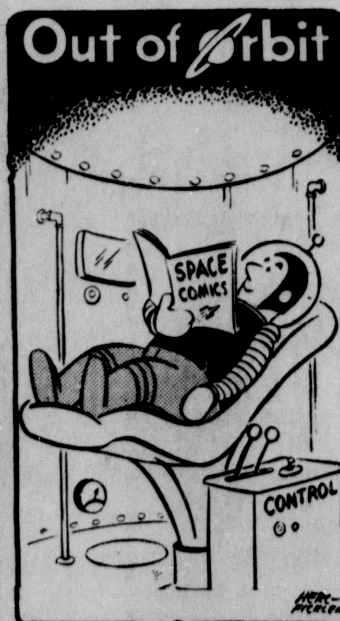

"Let me tell you about a buzzer nightmare. Last year on a Sunday I was driving a rented car in Miami. We were 40 miles from the rental station when this buzzer system malfunctioned. We had commitments to go other places, so we spent the afternoon listening to that buzzer system with its psychopathic drill pounding in on us.

"I definitely would like to have the freedom of choice to decide whether I want a buzzer system in my automobile. ..."

CRUMP'S GRASS ROOTS COMMENT

If you agree with The Hon. J. M. Collins, Room 1512, Longworth House Office Building, Washington, D.C., 20515, send him this column. In the meantime, prepare to "buckle up or buzz."

Revision Commission Makes Key Decisions On Basics

By Bill Boykin

The Texas Constitutional Revision Commission made key decisions last week on finance and legislative sections of the state's basic laws.

It will formulate recommendations September 6-8 on judiciary and education provisions. Sections on local government and general provisions will be reviewed September 13-15.

Final action of the 37-member body, which is studying changes needed in the state's basic laws, is scheduled September 27-29.

Meanwhile, a legislative planning committee for the January-May 1974 constitutional convention of lawmakers is moving ahead with preparations for the historic gathering.

The planners have voted to spend $33,938 on new chairs and desks to place in the House of Representatives chamber during the convention. Chairs, costing $165 apiece, will be replicas of those used by delegates to the 1876 constitutional convention. The desks, considerable more economical, will be made by state prison inmates at a cost of $22.50 each.

The revision commission practiced some economies (of language) in shortening the recommended general legislative tax power section of the constitution from the present lengthy statement of limits and exemptions to the following:

"Taxes shall be levied and collected by general law for public purposes only, and shall be equal and uniform."

The 181 legislators who will be delegates to the convention will convene here December 6-8 for a briefing on details of the commissions recommendations. The convention will open January 8.

FARM PRODUCTION

Texas farmers and livestock raisers are setting new production levels this year, Agriculture Commissioner John White reported.

Records, according to White, are being tied or broken for wheat, cotton, grain sorghum, corn, peanuts, soybeans, oats, barley, rye and rice. Texas is first in the nation in cotton and grain sorghum and fourth in wheat production.

Texas cattle on feed total 2.3 million, said White, about 700,000 more than the second-ranking state, Iowa, and an increase of nine percent over last year. White said cattle producers marketed more cattle during June and July than they did a year ago, proving that they are not holding back because of the price freeze on beef.

White predicted that removal of the beef price ceiling will not cause skyrocketing of meat prices and may even help bring them down.

He said there are warning signs consumer resistance to the rising prices of food products is stiffening.

GUARD STRENGTHENED

Texas for the first time in six years will field a full Army National Guard division November 1.

New Guard troop allocations will raise the state's authorized Army Guard strength to 17,700 from the present level of 16,000 (with 17,377 now authorized).

Reactivation of the 49th Armored Division of the Texas ANG was announced at Camp Mabry headquarters here recently. The "Lone Star" armored division will have three brigades strategically located over the state -- the First in Dallas, the Second in Fort Worth and the Third in San Antonio. In addition, the 36th Airborne Brigade at Houston will become a part of an active Army airborne division in event of mobilization.

TOURISM GAINS

Tourism gained modestly through July with attendance at attractions up one percent and highway tourist bureau services up nearly five percent for the first seven months of 1973.

Forty-seven attractions reported 29.7 million visitors, a gain of 300,000 over January-July 1972.

OLD PHILOSOPHER

Dear editor:

I don't know, I'm puzzled. I mean, you pick up a newspaper and before you look at it the first thing that pops into your mind is, who're they investigating this time? Who've they got the goods on now?

You know, illegal political contributions, kickbacks, bribery, wiretapping, get-rich-quick in office, influence peddling, favoritism, the Russian grain deal... you name it and some grand jury somewhere is investigating it, not just in Washington but all around the country.

Why any prosecuting attorney who isn't investigating a politician for receiving illegal donations is now considered sleeping on the job.

It's not just in Washington, where Special Prosecutor Archibald Cox says it'll take him the rest of his life to finish with Watergate, but throughout the land, in both parties, among governors, mayors, state representatives, party finance chairmen, etc. In some areas any politician who doesn't come out of office richer than he went in is considered incompetent.

It's everywhere. Coaches are being investigated for illegal recruiting, athletes are being checked to see if they've been fed pep pills. Why cheating has even been found in the kids' soap box derby, and I wouldn't be surprised to see a scandal turn up somewhere in the country in the P.T.A.

I got to talking about this with a neighbor and he said he had the solution.

"What's that?" I asked.

"Everybody ought to resign," he said.

"Everybody?"

"Yep. Everybody. Fruit basket turn over."

"Now wait a minute," I said. "You have everybody resign and the country'll be in the worst mess you've ever seen."

"It already is."

I don't agree, although sometimes it looks like we're working on it. I agree with another neighbor who said anybody who doesn't vote in the next election ought to be horsewhipped.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

The Family Lawyer

Farmer Watson's sheep, grazing in their pasture one morning, spied a thick, molasses-like liquid oozing out of the ground. Finding it appetizing, they all took a long drink.

Unhappily, the liquid was nothing but crude oil, seeping up from a broken pipeline that ran underneath the farm. In short order the sheep sickened and died.

Watson lost no time in seeking damages from the pipeline company. In court, he pointed out that the company had known of the leak for more than a week without bothering to warn him of the danger.

Result: the court ordered the company to pay for the dead sheep. The judge said it had failed to exercise the "reasonable care" that the law demands in such circumstances.

This case illustrates the type of claim that can arise from the network of cross-country pipelines now spreading swiftly under our land.

Gas pipelines too have their hazards. In another case, a gas pipeline was laid on the surface of some suburban property, close behind a small house. A resident of the house unwittingly backed his car over the line, cracked it open, and suffered a toxic dose of escaping gas.

When the man asked for damages, the company said it had a contractual right to lay pipeline "anywhere on the premises." But a court said this did not mean it could do so without fair regard for the safety of people living there.

Of course, the resident who is aware of a pipeline has to take reasonable precautions too.

Another farmer was injured when his plow struck a buried pipeline, throwing him to the ground. But it seems he had known where the pipeline was, and had been hoping that the plow would just slide right by it.

A court decided he could not collect damages from the pipeline company.

"He contributed," said the court, "to his own hurt."

SCS Notes....

Ponds, like any body of water, attract people. When the two come together, there always is chance of a drowning or boating accident.

"Ponds are an asset to the environment and have many uses," F. T. Pittman, Soil Conservationist for the U.S. Soil Conservation Service in Cameron stated. "During the past 30 years, Texas landowners have built more than 350,000 ponds as part of their soil and water conservation plans. Some 4,000 ponds have been built in Milam County.

"Families and friends are attracted to ponds because they are nice places to picnic, swim, boat or fish," Pittman said. "But the small boy passing by who is attracted by the water may do almost anything. This is why keeping ponds safe is so important."

Here are some pond safety suggestions listed by the SCS:

Before construction, find out about your liability. You may need to protect yourself with insurance and have your pond built by a reliable contractor who will follow engineering specifications.

During construction, remove trees, brush and anything else that might hinder safe boating or swimming. Eliminate sudden drop-offs and deep holes in the swimming area.

Once a pond is completed, mark the safe swimming areas and put warning signs at danger points. Tell swimmers not to swim alone, and post safety instructions for swimming and boating. Use boats that will float if swamped or capsized, and warn swimmers and boaters to stay out of ponds during storms and when spillways are flowing. Above all, recognize that farm ponds are hazards to small children.

"Your farm or ranch pond can be a source of enjoyment as well as profit, but only if it is safe," Pittman concluded.

ASCS News

Texas wheat producers' allotments for 1974 will be about three times the size of their 1973 allotments, according to Erwin H. Fuessel, chairman of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committee.

Fuessel said 1974 allotments will be based on the national allotments of 55.0 million acres, announced August 16 by Secretary of Agriculture Earl L. Butz, and that individual allotment notices will be mailed to farmers in a few days.

The allotment represents the number of harvested acres of wheat, based on the estimated average yield, which would result in production equal to estimated domestic and export disappearance in the 1974-75 marketing year. The allotment does not restrict the amount of wheat that can be planted.

Secretary Butz announced the 1974 wheat program shortly after the four-year Agriculture and Consumer Protection Act of 1973 was signed into law. Fuessel said, noting that the Secretary said the program is designed to encourage all-out production.

Futures Prices High, Producers Eye Hedging

"With futures prices on fed beef at record high levels, this might be a good time for livestock producers to do some hedging," says Dr. Ed Uvacek, livestock marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"Futures prices are up due to rumors regarding the end of the price freeze and stories of meat shortages," says Uvacek. At last reports, the October fed cattle contracts were selling for $59.77 per hundredweight. September contracts for 600-700 pound Choice feeder steers were over $70 and are at $70.35 for November.

"Obviously, the speculators who are buying at these high prices have overlooked several economic facts," points out the Texas A&M University System specialist.

First, feeder prices usually drop in late summer and fall when marketings are heavy.

Second, the 1973 record high calf crop, four percent larger than the 1972 crop, combined with the low placements during the first half of the year has left about three million calves still available for feedlots.

Third, to break even, feedlots must put pressure on feeder prices until feed costs come down, which will probably be no sooner than this winter.

"If you agree that these weakening factors might bring feeder prices down, you may wish to hedge on the futures market. If so remember these points," advises Uvacek.

--You do not have to deliver when you trade in futures contracts.

--You put up only $400 margin money per contract (representing 42,000 pounds of live 600-700 pound Choice steers.)

--You sell a contract now at a high price and later buy a comparable contract back at a lower price.

--The futures transaction has no effect on your actual cattle operation, it merely serves as price insurance against a drop.

--If we're both wrong and the market moves up, you lose money on the futures trade but make money on your cattle.

Proper Harvesting Means Smaller Soybean Loss

Soybean growers annually lose an average of 10 percent of their crop through improper harvest practices and management.

With October prices of $6 to $7 per bushel on the present soybean market, growers are anxious to harvest as many soybeans as possible, says R. J. Hodges, agronomist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

At an average yield of 40 bushels per acre, harvesting losses could amount to $25 an acre. Most of this loss can be saved by proper combine operation and adjustment.

"The first step in saving more beans is to prepare the combine ahead of harvest. Follow the operator's manual to make adjustments and then add any attachment or accessory you think will help you harvest more beans," says Hodges. He offers these harvest reminders:

--Begin harvest when moisture in the soybean seeds reaches 13 percent; higher moisture content may result in mold in the bin; lower moisture content will result in increased losses due to shattering, lodging and cracking. Your local elevator can probably arrange to give you a moisture test. --Cut soybeans as close to the ground as possible. From a half to one-and-a-half bushels per acre are lost for every inch of cut above ground.

--A floating flexible cutter bar extension, mounted below and about 10 inches forward of the original cutter bar, will follow the contour of the land and save more beans.

--A variable speed reel permits feeding the beans to the cutter bar with minimum shatter loss.

--A hydraulic reel height control to feed tall or short beans into the auger is necessary to lower or raise the reel while the combine is moving.

Sept. 29-30 O.S. Ranch Benefit Steer Roping and Art Exhibit, Post. Thirty-three top professional steer ropers, including eight former world champions, will compete for a jackpot of $15,000 and 32 of the nation's best cowboy and western artists will exhibit $200,000 worth of art. Funds raised by the event go to the West Texas Boys Ranch at San Angelo.

Now kids can look it up in their own Funk & Wagnalls.

After 60 years of making encyclopedias for adults, Funk & Wagnalls has learned enough to make one for children.

It's called the Young Students Encyclopedia. And it's designed to do something more than just get them through the next homework assignment—to make them want to learn on their own.

Instead of burdening your children with tons of forgettable detail, it appeals to their native curiosity. The article on Airplanes, for example, illustrates an experiment children can perform at home showing how things fly. There are hundreds of other drawings, games and puzzles that not only teach but provoke, involve and entertain in the process.

In other words, it's an encyclopedia children will actually use. They'll also use it a long time.

It's designed to be simple enough for children just learning to read and comprehensive enough to serve until they're ready for an adult encyclopedia. They can't outgrow it the way they do shoes.

Which brings up another nice point about the Young Students Encyclopedia: it's intended exclusively to help children, but it helps grown-ups too.

First, it doesn't put much of a dent in your budget. Since it's sold direct to you through us, you can buy the complete 20-volume set a volume or two a week for only $1.69 each. And the first volume for the introductory price of a quarter.

Second, it helps prevent you from doing what you shouldn't be doing anyway—your children's homework. It provides the answers; you just provide the encouragement.

So instead of just shopping for things to nourish growing bodies, come in and pick up a Young Students Encyclopedia. And nourish their minds as well.

Trade Mission Ups Texas Sales

AUSTIN The recent Texas trade mission to the USSR and Austria resulted in sales nearing $50 million, according to preliminary reports received by the Texas Industrial Commission.

"Although final sales figures have not been tabulated, it is already obvious that Texas manufacturers far surpassed last year's $40 million in new international sales in that visit to Russia," James Havey, director of international trade and leader of the mission, said.

The mission included a visit to Vienna, Austria, to participate in the opening of the U.S. Department of Commerce's new East-West Trade Center.

The participants then went to Moscow where they reported the Russians "in a mood to buy" Texas products.

One firm reported it has already equaled last year's $3 million in sales and may surpass the total with more followup business. Another Texas businessman said the visit could result in new sales of $8 to $10 million per year.

"We met many, if not all, of the top men in the Soviet oil industry," Gordon Gardiner of F. H. Maloney Co. in Houston, said. "We were received at the highest level and we met with people which otherwise would have taken years to achieve through individual effort."

The Texas Industrial Commission, which has been leading international trade missions since the mid-sixties and has been presented the coveted "E Award" for excellence in export development by the U.S. Department of Commerce, took along five companies on the last trip.

Participants, besides F. H. Maloney Co., were the Johnston Division of Schlumberger Technology Corp. in Houston; Halliburton Co. of Dallas; Axelson Industries of Longview, and HydroTech International, Inc. of Houston.

DPS Seeks Patrolman Applicants

The Texas Department of Public Safety is now accepting applications for appointment for the position of patrolman.

General qualifications for DPS Patrolmen are these: Applicants must be 20 through 35 years of age (inclusive); good moral character; excellent physical condition; height not less than 68 inches nor more than 78 inches; weight not less than two pounds nor more than 3 1/2 pounds per inch of height; visual acuity not worse than 20/40 correctable to 20/20; and a citizen of the United States.

Education requirements which are now a minimum of 30 semester hours of college credit will increase to 45 semester hours on September 1, 1973. Persons selected as cadets will be assigned to Austin for an 18-week training school beginning September 25th. At the DPS Academy. Qualified female applicants are now being accepted for the uniformed services of the DPS; and the department has been increasingly successful in recruiting persons from minority groups.

During the training school, cadets will receive a salary of $630 per month. After graduation, cadets will be commissioned as probationary Patrolman I at a salary of $719 per month and assigned to the highway patrol, license and way patrol, license and weight service, motor vehicle inspection service or driver license service according to the needs of DPS and consideration of personal preference.

The salary automatically increases to $743 per month after six months and to $794 after 12 months. Officers are eligible to compete for promotion to Patrolman II after 60 months commissioned service.

All DPS officers receive fringe benefits including hospitalization and life insurance, paid vacations and sick leave, and holidays as for all state employees. Uniforms, vehicle and equipment are furnished and patrolmen receive a uniform cleaning allowance and receive travel expenses when away from their station. In addition personnel are members of both the state employees retirement system and social security.

Applications should contact any DPS office or patrolman for an application.

The completed application form should then be taken to the regional office at Waco or district office at Austin where the competitive examination is given.

Infectious Diseases Show Dramatic Reductions

AUSTIN "In the past two years, the incidence of infectious, communicable diseases which are preventable by immunization has been reduced dramatically in Texas," the President of the Texas Medical Association declared in a statement released today.

Charles B. Dryden, M.D., of Wichita Falls, head of the 11,700 member medical organization, said that Texans should be proud of these public health gains. Cases of diphtheria, polio, measles (rubeola), and rubella have declined by more than 80 percent in Texas from 1970 to 1972.

"Mid-year reports from the Texas State Department of Health indicate that 1973 will see an even further reduction in the cases of these preventable diseases," Dr. Dryden said. "Individual physicians," the Texas State Department of Health, local health departments, the Texas Education Agency, and, of course, cooperating parents and patients are to be commended for increasing the protective immunization levels in our state," the TMA president stated.

In 1972, there were four cases of polio in Texas -- an 82 percent decrease from the 22 cases in 1970. By mid-August of this year, not a single case of polio had been confirmed in the state.

Diphtheria has taken an equally significant decrease of 82 percent. There were 41 cases reported last year, compared to 234 in 1970. Nine cases have been reported so far this year, which is less than half the number recorded in Texas at the same time in 1972.

Measles (rubeola, and rubella (German measles -- also known as "three-day measles") have both decreased by 81 percent since 1970, and the cases reported so far in 1973 are far below the number recorded by this time in 1972.

Eighty-one cases of pertussis (whooping cough) have been reported so far in Texas this year. This is less than the number reported for the same period in 1972 -- and 1972 saw the fewest cases recorded annually in Texas since whooping cough became officially reportable. Last year's 185 cases represented a 58 percent drop from the 1970 total of 437.

Two cases of tetanus, or lockjaw, have been confirmed in Texas so far in 1973, which is less than half the number recorded by this time last year.

Chute Doggin' Added To Rodeo

HUNTSVILLE -- Chute-doggin' -- an event where convict cowboys will be required to take a young steer, using only one hand and a rope, to a designated spot in front of the chute gate to throw and tie the head of stock -- has been added to an already action-packed 42nd annual Texas Prison Rodeo scheduled for each Sunday in October.

"It promises to be one of our most exciting events," forecasts E. H. (Hoot) Crawford, rodeo arena director. And for the second year, the Gorie Cowgirls will perform at the annual rodeo. The Gorie Cowgirls stole the hearts of rodeo fans last year in their initial prison rodeo appearance while participating in the calf tussle, pig-sacking contest, and the donkey barrel race.

The 1973 rodeo -- getting underway at 2 p.m. each October Sunday with the grand entry parade -- will feature 40 convict cowboys contesting for the coveted all-around top hand title. Thirty-nine of these cowboys will be trying to wrestle the title away from the current champ, Harry Southland of Fort Worth.

Southerland owns back-to-back titles and will be shooting for three in a row -- a feat accomplished only once before in the history of the prison rodeo.

The cowboys participate in saddle bronc riding, bull riding, bareback riding, a mad scramble (10 riders on 10 bulls coming out of the chute gates at the same time), and a wild horse race that has 10 three-man teams attempting to catch, saddle, mount and ride to a designated finish line for top money.

The redshirts, a group of 40 inmates divided into two-man teams, will vie in the wild-cow milking contest event, and will participate individually in the Hard Money event. Hard Money involves the contestants trying to grab a Bull Durham-size sack from between a bull's horns. Hard Money is held twice each Sunday with the sacks being worth $50 and $25.

Country western music will add to the rodeo when inmate recording stars and bands swing out for the mid-way show beginning at 9 a.m., and the pre-rodeo arena show at 12:30.

Ticket information -- may be received by writing to the Rodeo Ticket Office, Box 99, Huntsville, Texas, 77340, Foley's in Houston or Sears stores throughout Texas and Louisiana.

Don't Wait To Get Hunting Lease

It's hard to think about anything as remote as the next hunting season when your inclinations are to stay inside with the air conditioner and a tall, cold drink.

But if you're planning to hunt this season and your lease isn't sewed up yet, then it's time to start moving.

Most of the smart hunters have already negotiated with landowners for a place to hunt, so now all they have to do is show up when the season opens.

You can save yourself some headaches even at this late date if you take care before signing an agreement.

Read your lease carefully before you sign. It should spell out conditions for the protection of both parties to prevent misunderstandings.

It should cover these points: what is leased, name of parties, description of tract including size and boundaries, the terms of the lease including the amount and time of payment, the duration of the lease, who is to hunt and the species of game animals, fish, game birds and varmints which may be taken.

The landowner should specify what services or facilities are included in the lease such as blinds, cabins, utilities and special permits.

A written lease, when properly acknowledged, can be recorded in the county records and is binding on the landowner should he decide to sell his property to another party.

Yoe Readies For Second Scrimmage

Friday, August 31, the Cameron Yoemen will travel to Mexia for their second scrimmage.

The freshmen will scrimmage at 6:30, followed by the junior varsity and then the varsity.

Last Friday night the Yoemen scrimmaged A&M Consolidated in Cameron. The junior varsity set the pace by scoring twice. Both scoring drives consisted of excellent running and passing combinations. The junior varsity defense held A&M Consolidated to only one touchdown.

The Yoe varsity managed to cross the goal three times. Scoring for the Yoemen were George Whiteside on a long run from scrimmage. Jafus White from the 8 and Bruce Zarosky from the 36.

A&M Consolidated entered Yoe territory many times, but never crossed the goal.

The Yoe defense managed to halt the drives by a fumble recovery by Zarosky on the 30 and a pass interception by Craig Friemel on the 3.

Robert Claypool, Dennis Marek, Bill Huffman, Kelvin Kelm, Traver Turner, and Eddie Provasek. Martin Luecke won first place in diving and David Raymond and Greg Moore each won four blue ribbons in swimming competition.

Murray-Go-Round

By Tom Murray

AIN'T WAY IT WAS:

Sports, like other Americana, claim their quota of Phonies. Take the unnamed "Oklahoma Assistant" quoted in Texas Football as saying a Dallas-Area football recruit is "Every bit as good at this stage as Doug English was." Intimation, of course, is that anybody could have seen back there in 1971 that English would become an instant UT Soph Tackle Star. Not so. English was considered no Bluechip when the 6-5, 240-pound Cotton Bowl star signed on with Darrell Royal. In fact, Dave Campbell's highly respected Texas Football picked three entire Blue Chip teams and none of their experts rated Dallas Bryan Adams' English good enough to be included in the state's Top 33.

Marshall, a storied name of yesteryear in Texas Schoolboy football under Odus Mitchell, is quite up-to-date, thank you. Houston may claim George Foreman but truth is the World Heavyweight Champion is a native of the biggest city between Hallsville and Scottsville just before Interstate 20 disappears into Louisiana ... Tody Smith, Bubba's Baby Brother, now plowing Astro turf as Houston's Oiler defensive end, likes his Astrodome future: "It would be absurd," spake Tody, "to be overly optimistic." "But, I think we are going to surprise a lot of people." Does Tody really mean all those uncomplimentary things he's said about Dallas, where he toiled as a Cowboy Cutup? "I despise Dallas," he told a city load of Houston radio fans.

OLD TEAFF GETS AROUND

Think Baylor's not recruiting aggressively under SWC Coach-of-the-Year Grant Teaff? When was the last time a Waco Baptist Grid Boss signed two All-State players out of Santa Ana, California? ... How great are the odds against two senior lettermen at Tech, from the same small West Texas town, running one, two at Red Raider left-linebacker? Tom Ryan, 200, and Randy Lancaster, 218, of Andrews, have apparently been "stacked" by West Texas Fats, Jim Carlen.

Leave it to Bud Adams' Houston Oilers now have two coaches on Probation. Pete Rozelle had just confirmed that Oiler GM (And Silent Coach) Sid Gillman had, indeed, been placed on probation for allegedly prescribing without a license. Then, he up and hired Joe Wooley, the former Galveston Ball Coach, shortly after he had been flagged by the Texas Schoolboy Association.

Ecomet Burley, the Pride of Lufkin, could make it to the Bigtime on his name, alone. But, just watch how fast this Super 230-pound Soph Texas Tech lineman takes off with both on his side ... Henderson's Joe Wylie, one of the good things to happen to the Oklahoma Sooners, is carrying on with all that athletic ability with Al Davis' Oakland Raiders. Ask the Dallas Cowboys.

Texas 500 Date Changed

COLLEGE STATION -- The date for the Fourth Annual Texas 500 NASCAR sanctioned stock car race at Texas World Speedway has been changed from Sunday, November 4 to Sunday November 18.

Bill Marvel, spokesman for the Texas auto racing facility, said the reason for the change is that the original date conflicted with the 150 mile USAC Championship event at Phoenix, Arizona on Saturday, Nov. 3.

The Texas 500, which annually closes the season on the prestigious Winston Cup Trail, also carries a full FIA listing. This listing makes the race eligible to non-NASCAR members, including drivers who will be competing in the Phoenix race.

Marvel stated that he and other Texas World Speedway officials felt the change necessary in order to allow Texas fans an opportunity to see USAC "Hot Shoes" -- such as A. J. Foyt, Johnny Rutherford, and Gordon Johncock -- challenge Richard Petty, Buddy Baker, David Pearson and other NASCAR regulars in the 500 mile classic.

The addition of USAC drivers, plus the heated battle for final positions in the Winston Cup point standings, should make the Texas 500 the most competitive race on NASCAR's 1973 calendar.
